

INSTRUCTIONS

- This form may be filled out on-line but must be printed out and signed by the student.
- Requests should be taken to the department hosting the course.
- Incomplete requests will not be considered.
- The department is responsible for notifying students of the outcome of the request.
- Completing and submitting this request form does not guarantee a spot in the course.

Language for Reading Knowledge Information

- Language for Reading Knowledge courses will appear on the student's transcript as a 0 credit, pass/fail course. The course will be held during the summer session and will only be open to GSAS Ph.D. students and has no fee.
- Course administrators will evaluate the information provided here and select students for the courses based on this information alone. Students will be notified by the departments hosting the courses on the admissions decision and those accepted will be supplied with registration code which will enable them to register.
