Seeking German instructor for children ages 1–10 at Deutsches Haus at NYU

Deutsches Haus at NYU is New York’s leading institution for culture and language of the German-speaking world. Located in the historic Greenwich Village district, Deutsches Haus is an integral part of New York University. Since 1977, it has provided New Yorkers with a unique forum for cultural, intellectual, and artistic exchange with Germany, Austria, and Switzerland through its three pillars: the language program, the cultural program, and the children's program.

About the Children’s Program: Deutsches Haus offers fun classes and educational activities for children, including the celebration of traditional festivities around St. Martin, St. Nicholas, Carnival, and Easter. The children's program continues to create a sense of community among families who share an interest in German, Austrian, and Swiss culture.
