

CITI course instructions:

Got to www.citiprogram.org

Click New Users “Register Here”

For Participating Institutions: Select “New York University”
Follow the instructions to create a user name and password and answer the registration questions. The answer to Question #6 “CME/CEU credits” should be “No”.

To complete the RCR course only as requested by your department, you can answer Question 1 with “Research with data or laboratory specimens – ONLY: No direct contact with human subjects.”

Leave Question 2 and 3 blank

For Question 4 select Economics.

Then you complete the RCR modules and quizzes. Though a human subjects module will be available, you are not required to complete it. A report will be automatically generated and sent to the Office of Postdoctoral Affairs. Once you have completed the CITI course, attended two bookend sessions, and completed the in-house discussion in the Economics department, you will receive a Certificate in Responsible Conduct of Research.