Members of GIH and all students and faculty with a valid NYU ID card receive free admission, unless otherwise noted.

February 14
5:00 PM
MA Open House
Learn all about the MA in Irish and Irish-American Studies, a broad interdisciplinary curriculum that emphasizes new approaches to the field of Irish Studies.

March 14
7:00 PM
Annual Barra Ó Donnabháin Lecture: Dr. Art Hughes
In 2016, the King of Tory Island, Patsy Dan Rodgers, passed away. Earlier that same year, Dr. Hughes published a biography of this larger than life character. This event is free.

April 23
Tuesday, 7:30 PM
Musician in Residence: Joanie Madden
Joanie Madden is one of the foremost exponents of sean-nós singing from her native County Kerry. She studied jazz with John Lewis of Leeds College of Music and has performed internationally in a variety of genres.

May 2
Thursday, 7:00 PM
Siamsa na Bealtaine
Irish dancer Padraig Ó Coisir hosts an evening of traditional music and song with NYU students and local musicians.

---

March 22
Friday, 8:00 PM
Blarney Star Concert: Haley Richardson
Haley Richardson is an acclaimed teenage fiddler. In her first US tour, she performs in the orchestra of the Broadway hit show "Fiddler of Dooney" competition in Limerick, Ireland. Haley will share his insights on the life and exploits of an Irish-speaking family, as depicted in her new novel "The Cruelty Men."
Scholarships available for the Master of Arts in Irish & Irish-American Studies

NYU offers a program of graduate study unique in its focus on Ireland, Irish America, and the global Irish community. Courses in History, Literature, Irish Language, and Cultural Studies investigate the Irish experience in and outside of Ireland. The many archives and the vibrant Irish community of New York offer rich opportunities for graduate research. The M.A. degree can be completed in three semesters at NYU’s Greenwich Village campus in New York City, or in one calendar year with full-time summer study in New York and in Dublin. Part-time study is also available, including evening classes.

Scholarships are available for students in Irish Literature, Irish History, Irish Music and Cultural Studies, Irish-American Studies, and Digital Scholarship in Irish and Irish-American Studies.

For more information, please contact Graduate Program Director Dr. Miriam Nyhan Grey by email at gsas.irishstudies.ma@nyu.edu or by phone at 212-998-3950, option zero.

Irish Language Classes

Pádraig Ó Caoráill, Senior Irish Language Lecturer at NYU, prize-winning teacher, and a native speaker from Donegal, offers small, extra-mural evening classes in the Irish language to the public at Glucksman Ireland House NYU. Visit our website for the class list and schedule.

For more information, please contact Pádraig Ó Caoráill at po2@nyu.edu or 212-477-6177.

This Irish-American Life

Seize the opportunity to hear about the latest activities at the Glucksman Ireland House including interviews with guest speakers from the public events series, explorations of academic initiatives and classes, and podcasts drawn from our oral history project. Make us your resource for Irish, Irish-American, and global Irish affairs. Hosted by Dr. Miriam Nyhan Grey.

Every Saturday 9am to 10am on WNYE 91.5FM in the tri-state area and at irishradio.com.

Support Irish and Irish-American Studies.

Become a member today.