

Fall 2019

ITAL-UA 174

Italian Films, Italian Histories I

Prof. Stefano Albertini

Tuesdays 12:30-1:45 & Thursdays 12:30-3:15

Casa Italiana Zerilli-Marimò, Auditorium

This course studies the representation of Italian history through the medium of film from ancient Rome through the Risorgimento. Issues to be covered throughout include the use of filmic history as a means of forging national identity. This class will be taught in English.

Same as HIST-UA
176.001, MEDI-UA
173.001, CINE-UT 234,
& EURO-UA 174.001