NYU ITALIAN STUDIES PRESENTS

Roma migrations:
Stories from Italy and the USA

Thursday, October 5th, 2017, 6pm
NYU Casa Italiana Auditorium, 24 West 12th Street

Ion Dumitru Roma Activist and Migration Consultant, Rome
David Forgacs Professor, Contemporary Italian Studies, NYU
Carol Silverman Professor, Cultural Anthropology & Folklore, University of Oregon

This panel discussion will start with a screening of Roma settlements in Rome (20 minutes, in Italian with English subtitles) and will examine the situation of migrant Roma in Italy today, with particular attention to housing and access to school and work. It will then consider the situation of Roma migrants in the USA.