“Consciousness”
The Tenth NYU Conference on Issues in Modern Philosophy
New York University, November 8-9, 2013

Friday, November 8

9:30-10:30 Check-in

10:30-12:30 First session: Consciousness and its History
Speaker: Alison Simmons (Harvard University, USA)
Commentator: Vili Lähteenmäki (University of Jyväskylä, Finland)

2:00-4:00 Second session: Early Modern Philosophy
Speaker: Marleen Rozemond (University of Toronto, Canada)
Commentator: Larry Jorgensen (Skidmore College, USA)

4:30-6:30 Third session: Kant
Speaker: Richard Aquila (University of Tennessee, Knoxville, USA)
Commentator: Camilla Serck Hanssen (University of Oslo, Norway)

6:30-7:30 Reception

Saturday, November 9

10:00-12:00 Fourth session: Hegel
Speaker: Dina Emundts (University of Konstanz, Germany)
Commentator: Sebastian Rand (Georgia State University, USA)

2:00-4:00 Fifth session: Nietzsche
Speaker: Mattia Riccardi (University of Oporto, Portugal)
Commentator: Maudemarie Clark (University of California, Riverside / Colgate University, USA)

4:30-6:30 Sixth session: Contemporary Philosophy
Speaker: Galen Strawson (University of Reading, England / University of Texas, USA)
Commentator: TBA

7:30 Conference Banquet (program participants and invited guests)

Conference Directors: Don Garrett, Béatrice Longuenesse, John Richardson