

Appendix B: Petition to Enroll in an Internship
[Due by the end of the first week of the relevant term]

Internship represents an opportunity for students to work with other organizations related to their area of study along with approval from Faculty Advisor. The Faculty Advisor must be a member of the Department of Anthropology, usually one with whom the student has had at least one Anthropology course. In consultation with your Faculty Advisor, provide a brief description of the purpose of your Internship and the number of hours per week you will be devoting to the Internship and the criteria that will be used to assign you a grade for the Internship. Minimally, an Internship should culminate with a significant piece of written scholarship, the rough equivalent of a term paper for an upper-division course. Both you and your Faculty Advisor then need to sign this form and submit it to the Director of Undergraduate Studies in Anthropology by the end of the first week of the relevant term.
