

NEW YORK UNIVERSITY

COLLEGE OF ARTS & SCIENCE

Major in Italian Studies

The major in Italian Studies requires a total of 36 credits (typically 9 courses; grades below C do not count):

Title	Course Number	Instructor	Semester Taken
Advanced Review of Modern Italian	ITAL-UA 30

One (1) CONVERSATION course:

Title	Course Number	Instructor	Semester Taken

- Conversations in Italian (ITAL-UA 101); or Italian Through Cinema (ITAL-UA 107); or Italian Through Opera (ITAL-UA 108)

One (1) COMPOSITION course:

Title	Course Number	Instructor	Semester Taken

- Creative Writing in Italian (ITAL-UA 103); or Advanced Composition (ITAL-UA 105); or Translation (ITAL-UA 110)

One (1) LITURATURE SURVEY course:

Title	Course Number	Instructor	Semester Taken

- Readings in Medieval and Renaissance Literature (ITAL-UA 115); or Readings in Modern Italian Literature (ITAL-UA 116)

One (1) MEDIEVAL/EARLY MODERN course:

Title	Course Number	Instructor	Semester Taken

One (1) MODERN/CONTEMPORARY course:

Title	Course Number	Instructor	Semester Taken

Two (3) CULTURE & SOCIETY or ADVANCED LITERATURE courses:

Title	Course Number	Instructor	Semester Taken

Notes:

- No pass/fail courses may be counted toward the major in Italian Studies.
- No more than two (2) CORE-UA and/or FRSEM-UA courses (taught by an Italian Studies Faculty member) may be counted toward the major in Italian Studies.
- Italian Studies majors are encouraged to take both Literature Survey courses (ITAL-UA 115 and ITAL-UA 116).
- Italian Studies majors are encouraged to take one (1) additional Italian content course, whether in New York or at NYU in Florence.
- Italian Studies majors are strongly encouraged to study for at least one (1) semester at NYU in Florence, with necessary exceptions made for curricular, medical, familial, or athletic conflicts. Students may contact the Bursar for Financial Aid information.