REVOLUTION IN IRAN SHOCKS THE WORLD!
Student Prompt

Task: You are a British journalist reporting on the story of the late 20th century—an “Islamic” Revolution in Iran. The British public wants to know the causes of the revolution. With your trusty reporter’s notebook, your editor is sending you to Iran to investigate. Record what you see, what you think, and why you think it.

Learning Target: I can identify the causes of the Iranian Revolution.

Self-Checklist: Your investigation must include the following...

- Write at least 3 things you see at each Field Site.
- Use at least 1 adjective and at least 1 verb for each “I see” statement.
- Make an inference stating the cause of the Iranian Revolution based on the Field Site document
- Explain why your inference is right.
- Revise your information by completing Part 2 after you read Field Site 5.
- Complete Part 3 by classifying your causes based on the information provided after the Share Out.
