The individuals and offices listed above will maintain your privacy to the extent reasonably possible, but if you tell them about an incident of discrimination or harassment, they are obligated to report it to Mary Signor, who is the OEO (Office of Equal Opportunity) Executive Director and NYU's Title IX Coordinator. Mary will then contact you (or the subject of harassment or discrimination) and ask if you (or that person) would like to file a formal complaint. There will be no obligation or pressure to do so. Typically, except in cases in which there may be a danger to the community or where there is a pattern of discriminatory conduct, the process can stop there if you choose: no further steps will be taken without your consent.
