NYU Postdoctoral Program in Psychotherapy & Psychoanalysis
Miranda Family Fellowship Application

The Miranda Family Fellowship will be given to students who are bicultural and speak Spanish, with a preference for students with a deep and abiding interest in the culture and people of the Caribbean region, demonstrate financial need, and have a notable history working in underserved communities.

The Miranda Family Fellowship can be used to defray the cost of tuition and provides a stipend to support candidates during their clinical requirements and personal analysis. The award will provide up to $35,000 annually for a period of three years.

To receive and maintain the Miranda Family Fellowship, you must:

1. Have a demonstrated history working in underserved communities; those having worked only in private practice will not be considered.
2. Demonstrate a commitment to working with underserved communities during and after Postdoc candidacy.
3. Be bicultural and speak Spanish.
4. Demonstrate financial need.
5. Register for at least one course every semester.
6. Starting no later than the second semester of the second year, begin a psychoanalytic clinical case and a personal analysis.
7. Starting in the second year, participate in a program-wide Postdoc committee, task force, or special project.

You will be asked to submit regular updates throughout the academic year to the Fellowship Committee and the Miranda Family Fellowship donors.
