

LINSEY N. EDWARDS

Department of Sociology, New York University
295 Lafayette Street, 4119, New York, NY 10012
linsey.edwards@nyu.edu | (212) 998-7580

ACADEMIC APPOINTMENTS AND AFFILIATIONS

New York University (primary)

2020- Assistant Professor, Department of Sociology.

2018-2020 Visiting Assistant Professor, Department of Sociology. (*hired as tenure track)

London School of Economics

2018-2019 Visiting Fellow, Centre for Analysis of Social Exclusion.

EDUCATION

- 2018 Ph.D., Sociology and Social Policy. Princeton University.
Time and Efficacy: Neighborhoods, Temporal Constraints, and the Persistence of Poverty (Advisor: Douglas Massey)
- 2014 M.A., Sociology and Social Policy. Princeton University.
Exams: Stratification and Inequality, Economic Sociology, Urban Sociology
- 2009 M.A., Sociology and Education. New York University.
- 2007 B.A., Journalism. University of Maryland, College Park.

RESEARCH AND TEACHING INTERESTS

Inequality/stratification, neighborhoods, poverty, race/ethnicity, education, social policy, social theory, ethnography, mixed methods

PUBLICATIONS

Journal Articles

Edwards, Linsey. (2016). "Homogeneity and Inequality: School Discipline Inequality and the Role of Racial Composition," Social Forces 95: 55-75.

Hughes, Katherine and Linsey Edwards. (2012). "Teaching and Learning in the Dual Enrollment Classroom," New Directions for Higher Education 158:29-37.

Policy Briefs

Hughes, Katherine, Olga Rodriguez, Linsey Edwards and Clive Belfield. (2012). "Broadening the Benefits of Dual Enrollment: Reaching Underachieving and Underrepresented Students with Career-Focused Programs." San Francisco, CA: James Irvine Foundation.

Edwards, Linsey and Katherine Hughes. (2011). "Dual Enrollment for High School Students." Berkeley, CA: Career Academy Support Network, University of California, Berkeley.

ARTICLES UNDER REVIEW

Edwards, Linsey. "Determinants of Time Allocation for the Poor: Does Residential Location Matter?"

MANUSCRIPTS IN PROGRESS

Edwards, Linsey. The Time Trap: The experience and neighborhood effects of time for the Urban Poor. *Advance contract.

Edwards, Linsey. "The Leisure Gap: Poverty and the Differential Experience of Leisure Time."

Edwards, Linsey. "Waiting on Gadot: Race, Poverty, and Routine Interactions with the State."

Edwards, Linsey and Janeria Easley. "Teacher Perceptions of Student Ability: What's Driving Differences by Race?"

Hamilton, Tod and Edwards, Linsey. "Racial Health Disparities and the Role of Workplace Inequality"

Edwards, Linsey. "Temporal Dimensions of Neighborhood Inequality."

Easley, Janeria, Edwards, Linsey, and Dixon, Angela, "Structural Racism and Health: A Consideration of Proximal and Distal Factors in New York State."

GRANTS

2019 NYU Wagner/RWJ Foundation Health Hub Pilot Grant. $10,000. with Janeria Easley and Angela Dixon.

FELLOWSHIPS AND AWARDS

External

2017 MDRC Gueron Fund Doctoral Fellowship.
2013 Mathematica Summer Research Fellowship.

Internal

- 2016-2017 Princeton University McGraw Teaching Fellowship.
- 2014-2016 Princeton University Diversity Fellowship.
- 2014 Princeton University Marion J. Levy Social Policy Award.
- 2011-2013 Princeton University President's Fellowship Award.

INVITED TALKS AND CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS (*denotes forthcoming)

Invited Talks

“Time Use for the American Poor: Do Neighborhoods Matter?” Center for the Analysis of Social Exclusion, London School of Economics, November 2018.

Conference Presentations

“Poverty, Unpaid Work, and the Role of Place.” Work and Family Researchers Network Conference. Washington, DC, June 2018.

“Determinants of Time Allocation for the Poor. Does Residential Location Matter?” Association of Black Sociologists (ABS) Annual Meeting, Montreal, Canada, August 2017; American Sociological Association (ASA), Montreal, Canada, August 2017.

“Time & Efficacy: Temporal Patterns, Uncertainty and Community Life.” Junior Theorists Symposium (JTS), Seattle, WA, August 2016; Society of Social Problems Annual Meeting (SSSP), Seattle, WA, August 2016.

“The Influence of Neighborhoods on Time Allocation.” American Sociological Association Annual Meeting (ASA), Seattle, WA, August 2016; Time Use Across the Life Course Conference, College Park, MD, July 2016.

“Homogeneity and Inequality: School Discipline Inequality and the Role of School Racial Composition.” Population Association of America Annual Meeting (PAA), San Diego, CA, April 2015; American Education Research Association (AERA), Chicago, IL, April 2015.

“Compositional Differences or Unequal Treatment?: Black-White Differences in Exclusionary School Discipline and its Relation to High School Graduation.” PAA, San Diego, CA, April 2015.

“Promoting College Access among Underrepresented and Underprepared Students through Supportive Career-Technical Dual Enrollment.” AERA, New Orleans, LA, April 2011.

“Dual Enrollment within a CTE pathway: Supporting College-going among Students in Technical Fields.” AERA, Denver, CO, April 2010.

TEACHING AND ADVISING

Princeton University

Poverty in America, Prof. Kathy Edin and Matt Desmond | Spring 2018. Teaching Assistant.
Urban Sociology, Prof. Patricia Fernandez-Kelly | Fall 2017. Teaching Assistant.
Sociology of Race & Ethnicity, Prof. Patricia Fernandez-Kelly | Fall 2012. Teaching Assistant.
Sociology of Inequality, Princeton University Preparatory Program | Summer 2012.

New York University

Sociology and Education. CUNY NOW Course. | Fall 2008. Teaching Fellow.

PROFESSIONAL SERVICE

Conference Organizing

2017-2018 Junior Theorists Symposium, Theory Section of ASA (with Allison Ford).

Committees

2018-2019 ASA Theory Prize Committee

Reviewer

Social Problems, Sociology of Education, Social Science Research, Journal of Research in Crime and Delinquency, Rutgers Journal of Sociology

DEPARTMENT AND UNIVERSITY SERVICE

2016	Coordinator, Community-Based Learning Initiative. Princeton University.
2015-2016	Trainer, Inclusive Teaching Workshop. Princeton University.
2013-2015	Organizer, Speaker Series on Race & Ethnicity. Princeton University.

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

American Sociological Association
Association of Black Sociologists
Association for Public Policy Analysis & Management
American Educational Research Association
Population Association of America