

Going Abroad BUENOS AIRES

Pathways through your Major or Minor

A guide to how courses at NYU Buenos Aires fit with your major or minor

How to use this form: below is a list of courses taught at NYU BA. Each course lists the majors and minors for which the course may be taken, either to satisfy a requirement, or as an elective. Please make sure to follow the key to majors and minors when you are looking for courses that count toward your concentration, as all majors and minors have different requisites and accepted electives.

Not all classes listed below are offered every term. Look for the list of current courses and descriptions at:

<http://www.nyu.edu/buenos-aires.html>

Key to the Majors

SPAN: Spanish + Latin American Lit and Culture

LAMS: Latin American and Caribbean Studies

IBST: Iberian Studies

ROML: Romance Languages

SPLN: Spanish and Linguistics

Key to the Minors

SPANm: Spanish

LAMSm: Latin American and Caribbean Studies

IBSTm: Iberian Studies

CWSPm: Creative Writing in Spanish

Rules on Advanced Language Electives and Your Major or Minor:

Advanced Language Electives include courses in CONVERSATION, CREATIVE WRITING, or TECHNIQUES of TRANSLATION. Please note that there are different names for these courses in Washington Square and abroad. The information below explains how advanced language electives fit your major or minor.

- SPAN majors and minors
Spanish majors may take up to two advanced language electives toward the major (whether taken in Washington Square or abroad). Minors may take one advanced language elective toward the minor. Advanced Language Electives ARE NOT required for the major or minor, but students may take them as described above to satisfy electives.
- ROML and SPLN majors
ROML and SPLN majors may take ONE advanced language elective toward the major (whether taken in Washington Square or abroad). Advanced Language Electives ARE NOT required for these two majors, but students may take ONE advanced language elective as one of their five courses required for the Spanish portion of their major.
- LAMS and IBST majors and minors
No advanced language electives may be used to satisfy the major or minor.

Rules on Courses Taken in English for your Major or Minor:

Some of our majors and minors allow you to use courses taught in English toward your major or minor. Please review these rules while working on your course schedule.

- SPAN majors and minors
Spanish majors may take up to two courses in English with writing in Spanish toward the major (whether taken in Washington Square or abroad). Minors may take one course in English with writing in Spanish toward their minor (whether taken in Washington Square or abroad). Please note that you can only use this option if you have taken SPAN-UA 200 before or are taking SPAN-UA 9200 concurrently.

- ROML and SPLN majors
ROML and SPLN majors may NOT take any courses in English to fulfill their requirements for their major.
 - LAMS and IBST majors and minors
LAMS and IBST majors and minors may take as many courses in English as desired, provided that they fulfill the necessary language requirement for their major or minor (in Spanish, the requirement is successful completion of SPAN-UA 100, SPAN-UA 111, SPAN-UA 9100, or their equivalent).
-

Courses Taught in Buenos Aires

Intermediate Thematic Conversation Course

SPAN-UA 9026 Topics in Latin American Literature & Culture: Argentina Today
Must be taken concurrently with SPAN-UA 9020 or SPAN-UA 9004.

This course counts as an advanced language elective for SPAN, SPANm, ROML and SPLN. Please refer to the rules for counting advanced language electives towards the majors and minors.
It does not count as an elective for LAMS and LAMSm, IBST, IBSTm, CWSPm.

Advanced Language Courses

SPAN-UA 9100 Advanced Grammar and Composition

Prerequisites: SPAN-UA 20 or SPAN-UA 4; or permission of the director of Spanish language programs.

This course counts as a required course for SPAN and SPANm. Fulfills the major and minor prerequisite for ROML, SPLN, CWSPm. Fulfills the language requisite for LAMS and LAMSm. For non-native speakers only. If you are a native speaker, see the Director of the Language Program in the Department of Spanish and Portuguese at Washington Square for placement.

SPAN-UA 9103 The Language of Buenos Aires [equivalent with Advanced Conversation, SPAN-UA 101]

Prerequisite: Advanced Grammar and Composition (SPAN-UA 100) or concurrent registration in SPAN-UA 9100.

This course is the equivalent of "Advanced Conversation." Students who have already taken Critical Approaches before going to Argentina should consult the language coordinator at the site to see if this course is appropriate for you. This course IS NOT for heritage speakers.

This course counts as an advanced language elective for SPAN, SPANm, ROML and SPLN.

It does not count as an elective for LAMS and LAMSm, IBST, IBSTm, CWSPm.

Upper Level Courses taught in Spanish

Courses in Spanish that you may take after or concurrently with Advanced Grammar and Composition. All exceptions are handled on a case by case basis and must be approved by the director of language in Washington Square or at the site.

Majors in SPAN, IBST, ROML, and SPLN and minors in SPANm, IBSTm, CWSPm are STRONGLY advised to take Critical Approaches concurrently, as it is required for the degree and will not be waived.

SPAN-UA 9200 Critical Approaches: Argentina

Prerequisite: SPAN-UA 100 or SPAN-UA 111, or concurrent enrollment in SPAN-UA 9100

Counts as a required course for SPAN, IBST, ROML, SPLN, SPANm, IBSTm, CWSPm. Elective for LAMS and LAMSm.

SPAN-UA 9751 Tango and Mass Culture (in English cross listed with Gallatin SASEM-UG and MCC-UE 9121 in the fall; in Spanish cross listed with Gallatin SASEM-UG 9150 in the spring)

Prerequisite: SPAN-UA 100 or SPAN-UA 111, or concurrent enrollment in SPAN-UA 9100. This course is cross-listed with other departments; Spanish majors and minors should register under the Spanish department number. If taken in English, the course counts as a course taken in English with writing in Spanish for SPAN and SPANm. Students in ROML, SPLN, CWSP may not take the course in English
Counts as an elective for SPAN, LAMS, ROML, SPLN, SPANm, LAMSm, CWSPm

SPAN-UA 9160 Cultura e Identidad Política en Latinoamérica (cross-listed with Anthropology, ANTH-UA 9100)

Prerequisite: SPAN-UA 100 or SPAN-UA 111, or may be taken concurrently with SPAN-UA 9100
Counts as an elective for SPAN, LAMS, ROML, SPLN, SPANm, LAMSm, CWSPm

SPAN-UA 9845 Borges y cultura argentina (fall)

Prerequisite: SPAN-UA 100 or SPAN-UA 111, or may be taken concurrently with SPAN-UA 9100
Counts as an elective for SPAN, LAMS, ROML, SPLN, SPANm, LAMSm, CWSPm

Courses in Spanish that you may take after or concurrently with SPAN-UA 9200 "Critical Approaches."

If you are taking Advanced Grammar and Composition and not Critical Approaches, you may not enroll in these courses.

All exceptions are handled on a case by case basis and must be approved by the director of language in Washington square or at the site.

SPAN-UA 9201 Myths, Icons, and Invented Traditions: A Cultural History of Latin America (cross-listed with Gallatin, SASEM-UG 9151) (fall)

Prerequisite: SPAN-UA 200; or concurrent enrollment in SPAN-UA 9200

This course may be taken in substitution for Cultural History of Latin America if the student is unable to take it in Washington Square; as such, it will satisfy the requirement for Cultural History for SPAN and LAMS.

Counts as an elective for ROML, SPLN, SPANm, LAMSm, CWSPm

SPAN-UA 9550.001 Terrorismo y cultura (spring)

Prerequisite: SPAN-UA 200 or may be taken concurrently with SPAN-UA 9200

Counts as an elective for SPAN, LAMS, ROML, SPLN, SPANm, LAMSm, CWSPm

SPAN-UA 9550.002 Historia cultural de Latinoamérica: ciudad, paisaje y arquitectura (spring)

Prerequisite: SPAN-UA 200 or may be taken concurrently with SPAN-UA 9200

Counts as an elective for SPAN, LAMS, ROML, SPLN, SPANm, LAMSm, CWSPm

Courses taught in English

CORE-UA 9515 Cultures and Context: Latin America

This course counts as the required course in Cultural History of Latin America for LAMS majors. SPAN majors need to take 9201 ("Myths") to comply with the requisite of Cultural History of Latin America. Can be taken as an elective, with writing in English or Spanish, for LAMS, LAMSm.

ARTH-UA 9850 Visual Cultures in Colonial and 19 Century Latin America (fall)

This course can be taken in substitution of the requirement in Iberian Atlantic for the following majors: SPAN, LAMS, IBST. It counts as an elective with writing in Spanish for SPANm.

SPAN-UA 9750 or ICINE-UT 105 Cinema in Latin America: Contemporary Argentine Cinema

Majors and minors should enroll under the Spanish ("SPAN-UA") course number.

This course counts as an elective, with writing in English or Spanish, for LAMS, LAMSm. It counts as an elective with writing in Spanish for SPAN, SPANm.

SPAN-UA 9481 or SCA-UA 9844 Queer Cultures and Democracy (spring; cross-listed with SCA)
Majors and minors in Spanish should enroll under the Spanish ("SPAN-UA") course number.
This course counts as an elective, with writing in English or Spanish, for LAMS, LAMSm. It counts as an elective with writing in Spanish for SPAN, SPANm.

IDSEM-UG 9150 9650 Art and Politics in the City: New York and Buenos Aires
Counts as an elective for LAMS, LAMSm. It counts as an elective with writing in Spanish for SPAN, SPANm.

IDSEM-UG 9151-001 or ARTH-UA-9850001 Exhibitions: A History, A Theory, An Exploration
Counts as an elective for LAMS, LAMSm. It counts as an elective with writing in Spanish for SPAN, SPANm.

CRWRI-UA 9815 Creative Writing: Argentina, Travel Writing at the Far End of the World
Although taught in English, students can get permission from the DUS to take this course for CWSPm credit when the writing is done in Spanish. In this case, the prerequisite is SPAN-UA 200 or may be taken concurrently with SPAN-UA 9200. This course can only be taken with permission by the GC or DUS from Spanish and Portuguese.

ECON-UA 9231 Money and Banking: Argentina
Not open to NYU Stern students. Prerequisite: ECON-UA 1 (Economic Principles) or ECON-UA 5 (Intro to Economic Analysis). Counts as an elective for LAMS, LAMSm

JOUR-UA 9204 Reporting Buenos Aires (spring)
Counts as an elective for LAMS, LAMSm; or for SPAN majors that are double majoring in Journalism. In the latter case, this course will count as one of two courses you may take in English toward the major.

MCC-UE 9455 Global Media Seminar: Latin America
Counts as an elective for LAMS, LAMSm; or for SPAN majors that are double majoring in Journalism. In the latter case, this course will count as one of two courses you may take in English toward the major

MUSIC-UA 9155 The Music of Latin America
Counts as an elective for LAMS, LAMSm

SPAN-UA 9760 or HIST-UA 9744-001 Introduction to Latin American Studies (spring)
Counts as an elective or as the required core course for LAMS, LAMSm

POL-UA 9780 Inter-American Relations: Latin America & the US
Counts as an elective for LAMS, LAMSm

POL-UA 9795 Political Institutions and Economic Policy (spring)
Counts as an elective for LAMS, LAMSm

Internships and Experiential Learning

Majors may count 4 credits of a graded internship course toward their major

NODEP-UA 9982 or INDIV-UG 9150 Internship and Fieldwork Seminar
Majors may take a total of 4 credits (the equivalent to one course) of internship. In Washington Square, this is distributed as 2 credits in the fall and 2 credits in the spring. In Buenos Aires, you take a 2-credit internship and a 2-credit seminar. The internship counts as an elective for SPAN, LAMS, ROML, SPLN.

EXLI-UF 9301-9302 Experiential Learning – For GLSP students only

Prerequisite: SPAN-UA 100 or concurrent enrollment in SPAN-UA 9100.

NOTE: Please note that any exceptions to the rules established in this document must be approved by the GC and the DUS of the Department of Spanish and Portuguese

Revised 8/2017 LD